Intelligence . Leadership . Transformation

A Peer-Powered, Knowledge-Based and Community-Led Initiative for CFOs

CFO INDIA NETWORK (CIN)

Today, CFOs need to transform themselves into “Business Partners” for strategy development, which means:

- Greater integration with other functions
- Benchmarking against the best-in-class to achieve functional excellence
- Influencing government policies through a collective voice
- Mentoring an effective next-in-line

This transformation can be realized through platforms which:

- Encourage collective problem-solving
- Provide access to benchmarks, tools and insights
- Provide opportunities to identify and mentor the next-in-line

CFO India's programmes have been designed to address this need and create a framework for future growth that supports the evolution of function and community.

WHO SHOULD JOIN?

This forum is tailored for CFOs/Peers who WANT TO:
